

The current rules limiting media consolidation are necessary and appropriate. I oppose any change that will result in media consolidation.
On June 2, 2003 I urge that you retain the current ownership rules.